

Fees and Refunds Policy and Associated Procedures

Purpose of the policy

This policy and associated procedures outline Rosehill College's approach to the effective and fair management of fees, charges and refunds. This ensures that support is provided to students to assist them to complete their studies.

This policy and associated procedures meet the requirements of Clauses 5.3 and 7.3 and Schedule 6 of the Standards for RTOs 2015 and Standards 2 and 3 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, as well as the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS (Calculation of Refund) Specification 2014.

Policy statements

Information about fees and charges

Rosehill College is committed to providing students with information about all fees and charges associated with a course, as well as its refund policy and processes.

Prospective students can access information about fees and charges and refunds in the International Student Handbook and Course Brochure.

Enrolling students are fully informed of all fees and charges and the refund policy in the Offer Letter and Student Agreement.

The Offer Letter and Student Agreement includes details of all applicable fees and charges, including the application fee, tuition and non-tuition fees and the payment schedule for such and payment options. It also describes the student's consumer rights, including the right to a cooling off period depending on the relevant state/territory requirements.

Students are advised of the potential for fees and charges to change over the duration of their course.

Students are advised of any statutory cooling off period in their Offer Letter and Student Agreement.

All fees and charges will be reviewed annually and all marketing material and student information will be updated accordingly. New fees and charges will generally only apply to incoming students.

All fees and charges are published on the website and are provided to students prior to enrolment.

Additional fees that may apply in addition to tuition and non-tuition fees include:

Fee protection

Fees paid by students are protected as follows:

- Domestic students: students pay up to a maximum of $1,500 in advance for services not yet provided.
- International students: international student fees are protected through the following mechanisms:
  - Maintaining a sufficient amount in the Rosehill College account so that so that it is able to repay all tuition fees already paid.
  - Through membership of the Tuition Protection Scheme (TPS). The role of the TPS is to assist international students where the Registered Training Organisation is unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.
  - In addition, international students are not required to pay more than 50% of course fees prior to commencement, except where a course is less than 26 weeks. However, any international student may choose to pay their fees in full or a greater amount than 50%.

Payments

Payment options are specified in the Offer Letter and Student Agreement.

All fees and charges are to be paid by the date indicated on the invoice. However, where a student is unable to make a payment by the specified date, alternative arrangements may be made by contacting the office.

All payments are to be made by bank transfer into a specified account, the details of which are provided to students. Rosehill College will maintain a sufficient amount in the account so that it is able to repay all tuition fees already paid.

Where fees are overdue and the student has not made alternative arrangements, a first warning, second warning and notice of intention to report regarding non-payment of fees will be sent to the student as follows:

- First warning letter: failing to pay an invoice within 5 days of receipt or contacting Rosehill College to make alternative arrangements.
- Second warning letter: failing to pay an invoice within 5 days of receipt of the first warning letter or contacting Rosehill College to make alternative arrangements.
- Notice of intention to report: failing to pay an invoice within 5 days of receipt of the second warning letter or contacting Rosehill College to make alternative arrangements.

Following cancellation of enrolment due to non-payment of fees, the debt will be referred to a debt collection agency.

All receipts of payments are kept for a minimum of 2 years following the student's completion of their course.

Credit transfer and RPL

A reduction of fees can apply for any units granted through credit transfer and RPL. The course tuition fees should be divided by the number of units and then the reduction applied per unit for the applicable number of units. This should be shown on the invoice.

Refunds

Refunds for international students are calculated in accordance with the ESOS framework.

Students are provided with refund information prior to enrolment.

All application fees are non-refundable except where Rosehill College cancels a course prior to commencement due to insufficient numbers or other unforeseen circumstances, including a sanction being imposed on Rosehill College.

Where Rosehill College cancels a course either before or after commencement, students will receive an automatic refund and do not need to complete the Refund Application Form. This will be provided within 10 working days of the default.

In all other circumstances, students are required to complete a Refund Application Form which can be accessed from our office. This form must be submitted within 10 working days of the event that led to the request for the refund. The outcome of the refund assessment will be forwarded to the student in writing within 20 working days, as well as any applicable refund.

Refunds will be paid to the person or entity from whom the original payment was received and in Australian Dollars.

The refund policy does not remove the right of the student to take further action under Australian Consumer Law.

Refunds: Student Default

- Student default occurs where the course starts on the agreed start date:
  - o but the student does not start on the agreed start date
  - o and has not previously withdrawn from the course
  - o or advised of visa cancellations in writing within an agreed time period prior to the course start date
  - o or the student cancels or withdraws from the course either before or after the agreed starting date.
- The above is student default and the following refund conditions apply:

Refunds: Provider Default

- If Rosehill College defaults, that is, if the course does not start on the agreed starting date or the course ceases to be provided before it is completed, Rosehill College will make every effort to transfer the students' enrolments to another college or pay a refund of the unused portion of the course money received from the student.
- International student refunds in situations of Provider Default are covered by the provisions of The Education Services for Overseas Students Legislation Amendment (Tuition Protection Service and Other Measures) Act 2012 and apply if:
  - o Rosehill College does not offer a course on the advertised start date or
  - o terminates a course after the course start date or before the course completion date or
  - o does not provide a course as advertised due to sanctions by any authority or
  - o does not provide a course in full.
- In such a case Rosehill College will pay the student a refund which equals the amount of the total tuition fees paid for the remainder of the course not completed at the time of default if an alternative placement with another provider cannot be found to the student's satisfaction. Such refunds will be made within 20 working days following the default date with a statement explaining how the refund amount has been calculated.
- Fees not listed in the refund section are not refundable. Prior to a student enrolling, fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student, then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course.
- The above is provider default and the following refund conditions apply:

Circumstance	Refund due
Rosehill College cancels course before commencement (including closure of Rosehill College)	Full refund of all fees
Rosehill College cancels course following commencement (including closure of Rosehill College)	Full refund of all unspent fees calculated as follows: Weekly tuition fee multiplied by the weeks in the
